

The Competition Commission of India has engaged Vidhi Centre for Legal Policy (VCLP) for providing research and legal assistance in framing/drafting/amending of Regulations and Guidelines in accordance with the Competition (Amendment) Act, 2023.

The VCLP was engaged for providing drafting assistance to the Competition Law Review Committee and it has continuously been associated with providing assistance and research inputs in drafting of the parent law i.e. Competition (Amendment) Act, 2023. Also, it has expertise in providing assistance in legal drafting, particularly in the field of competition law, accordingly, engaging the VCLP for providing research and legal assistance in framing/drafting/amending of Regulations and Guidelines is a natural continuity.
